I. Tzotz. E-9 (1968) 1951 SC4 Araucanians SC4
Mapuche-Huilliche

PLATE XVI

F
C33
M2

Fig. 1. Two men from Ramon, Fermin Nahuelhual, the cacique (left), and Segundo Huenchual. Although Segundo regards himself as an Araucanian he has shown little evidence of Indian ancestry.

946
S77
747

Fig. 2. Children at Carrasco. Behind them is the one-room school conducted by the Middle Americans. Domingo Caribul, the teacher, is at the extreme right.

[end plate 16]

10: Hilger E-5 (1946-1952) 1957
SG4 Araucanians SG4
Chile

481
●346

492
482
415

534

Aleguic schoolboys: 1, Boy at right making a loophol from the blades of a chapiña; boy at left blowing into a completed one. 2, Boy about to ride home at the close of a school fiesta. (Note his carrying bag and his saddle and stirrups.) 3, Climbing the school flagpole.

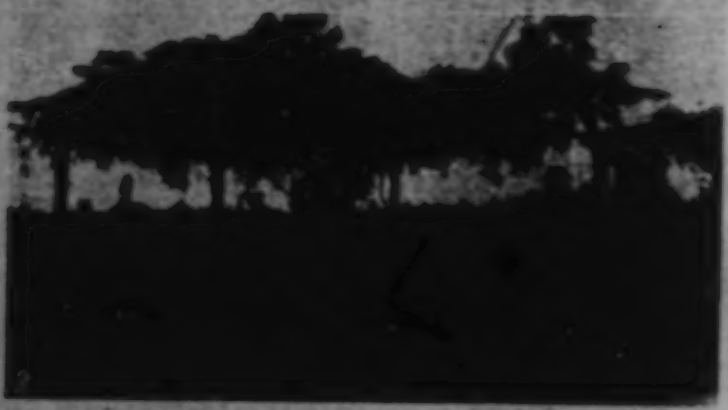
[p. 28(F)]

10: Hilger E-5 (1946-1952) 1957

5G4 Araucanians 5G4

Chile

796
346



The ullutun, religious ceremonial (Cobarije): 1, Sun shelters erected by participants at the place of the ceremonial. 2, Detail of one of the shelters. 3, The spot on which the sacrificial animals were burned.

[p. 156(N)]